

Release of Liability – Dakotas United Methodist Conference

Each United Methodist Camp and Retreat Center ("Camp") in the Dakotas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church offers a variety of services and voluntary activities designed to enrich the camping or retreat experience. These services and voluntary activities may include, without limitation, the provision of food, lodging and transportation, as well as the sponsorship of challenging and educational activities often associated with camping and the outdoors such as swimming, hiking, motorized and non-motorized boating, water-skiing, knee boarding, banana boat rides, tubing, campfires, fishing, all-terrain biking, low and high rope courses, zip-lining, archery, rock climbing, wall climbing, rappelling and the following on-the-water toys: climbing wall with slide, logs, water trampoline, and bouncer. Special camps offer special educational opportunities or off-site trips. Both participants and staff members (including volunteers) may have the opportunity to participate in one or all of these activities.

While each Camp will endeavor to assure the safety of its participants and staff members, there are unavoidable risks of injury – and even death – associated with camping and its related services and activities.

Consequently, a properly executed Release of Liability is required before anyone may attend a Camp or Retreat as either a participant or a staff member.

Such a Release of Liability is set forth below. If you are a prospective participant or staff member under eighteen years of age, one of your parents or your legal guardian must print his or her name below and then sign and date the line designated "Custodial Parent/Guardian." If you are a prospective participant or staff member eighteen years of age or older, you must print your name below and then sign and date the line designated "Adult Participant or Staff Member." You are encouraged to consult an attorney if you have any questions about the meaning of this document. If you have any questions about the services or activities provided at any Camp you should contact the Dakotas Camping Office at 605-996-6552.
